

IQWiG Autumn Symposium

19.11. and 20.11.2010

Programme - 19.11.2010

Balancing of benefits and harms in health system decision-making

From 13:00 Meet and greet in the foyer 13:30 – 13:45 Welcome 13:45 – 14:15 Monika Lelgemann How evidence-based can the balancing of benefits and harms be? 14:30 – 15:00 Thomas Kohlmann Measurement of quality of life as a method for balancing benefits and harms? 15:15 – 15:45 Break and individual discussions 15:45 – 16:15 Maximilian Grüne Differences between the balancing of risks and benefits (acc. to German Drug Law) and benefits and harms (acc. to Social Code Book V)	16:30 – 17:00 Armin Koch Is there a difference between benefits and harms? Or are benefits and harms just two sides of the same coin? 17:15 – 17:45 Break and individual discussions 17:45 – 18:15 Norbert Schmacke Balancing of benefits and harms in palliative medicine 18:30 – 19:00 Gerald Gartlehner Balancing of benefits and harms in screening/population-based measures From 19:30 Music, dinner and more room for discussions
---	--

Programme - 20.11.2010

Data transparency as a precondition to the informed balancing of benefits and harms

09:00 – 09:15 Introduction 09:15 – 09:45 Christian Quack Legal regulations on data transparency – Comparison between the United States and Europe 10:00 – 10:30 Gabriela Soskuty Data transparency in the field of medical devices (proposals by the medical device industry) 10:45 – 11:15 Break and individual discussions	11:15 – 11:45 Antje Timmer Publication bias in studies beyond RCTs 12:00 – 12:30 Ina B. Kopp Implications of publication bias for the development and assessment of clinical practice guidelines 12:45 – 13:15 Georg Marckmann Data transparency – an ethical imperative From 13:30 Lunch / end of event
--	--