

IQWiG Autumn Symposium

25-26.11.2011

Programme - 25.11.2011*

Methodology: between regulations and arbitrariness

Moderator: Holger Wormer

from 13:00 Meeting and greeting in the foyer 13:30 – 13:45 Welcome 13:45 – 14:15 Meinhard Kieser Assessment of clinical relevance – between O.2 and medical judgement 14:30 – 15:00 Holger Schünemann Diagnostics and linked evidence – How robust must the chain be? 15:15 – 15:45 Break and individual discussions 15:45 – 16:15 Nicole Schlottmann RCT plus x – discussion about an unknown factor	16:30 – 17:00 Gerd Glaeske Surrogate outcomes – somewhere between indispensable and out of the question 17:15 – 17:45 Break and individual discussions 17:45 – 18:15 Friedhelm Hase Legal discretion – Medical evaluations and legal normative requirements 18:30 – 19:00 Günter Haaf After “easy” comes “wrong” – Challenges in scientific journalism from 19:30 Music, evening buffet and further discussions
--	---

Programme - 26.11.2011*

Personal responsibility

09:00 – 09:15 Introduction 09:15 – 09:45 Harald Schmidt Personal responsibility as an incentive - What is the evidence? 10:00 – 10:30 Stefan Huster Solidarity and personal responsibility – Tension or accordance? 10:45 – 11:15 Break and individual discussions	11:15 – 11:45 Lothar Weißbach The healthcare system needs more personal responsibility 12:00 – 12:30 Leonhard Hansen What does personal responsibility mean in practice? Insight into the medical daily routine 12:45 – 13:15 Wolfgang Schuldzinski How can patients take on responsibility? from 13:30 Lunch / end of meeting
---	--

The IQWiG Autumn Symposium 2011 will be held in the Radisson BLU Hotel, Am Messekreisel 3, Cologne.