

IQWiG Autumn Symposium: 29 - 30 November 2013

Quality of life in health care: Do we know what we are doing?

Moderator: Holger Wormer

Programme on 29 November 2013

from 13.30	Meeting in the foyer	16.30 - 17.15	Friedhelm Leverkus Methods for analysing data on quality of life in the benefit assessment of drugs
14.00 - 14.30	Jürgen Windeler Introduction	17.15 - 17.45	Break - individual discussions
14.30 - 15.15	Monika Bullinger The concept of quality of life in medicine: development and importance today	17.45 - 18.30	Wolfgang Greiner Assessment of quality of life and utilities in health economics
15.15 - 15.45	Break - individual discussions	18.30 - 19.15	Stefan Wilm Is quality of life what patients really want? A family doctor's perspective
15.45 - 16.30	Thomas Kohlmann Measuring quality of life: as simple as possible, as complex as necessary	from 19.15	Evening snack – individual discussions

Programme on 30 November 2013

09.00 - 09.15	Jürgen Windeler Introduction	11.15 - 12.00	Hans-Detlev Kunz The importance of quality of life – from the patient's perspective
09.15 - 10.00	Peter Axer The importance of quality of life – from the socio-legal perspective	12.00 - 12.45	Regina Klakow-Franck The importance of quality of life – for the work of the Federal Joint Committee (G-BA)
10.00 - 10.45	Christiane Woopen The importance of quality of life – from the ethical perspective	12.45 - 13.00	Jürgen Windeler Summary - outlook
10.45 - 11.15	Break – individual discussions	from 13.00	Lunch snack - end of symposium

Venue: Radisson BLU Hotel, Am Messekreisel 3, 50679 Cologne, Germany