

Focus on low-value care: Insights and options for action

Programme | Friday, 20 November 2026

from 12:00	Informal onboarding session with snacks and drinks
12:30 – 12:40	Welcome IQWiG Institute Management and moderation team urban & saal Block 1 – Evidence and scientific basis
12:40 – 13:10	Prof. Dr Verena Vogt – Jena University Hospital Measuring low-value care using routine statutory health insurance data: status quo and outlook
13:10 – 13:40	Dr Simone van Dulmen – Radboud University, Niederlande Challenges and opportunities to reduce low-value care. Lessons from the Netherlands.
13:40 – 14:10	Prof. Dr. Jean-François Chenot – Greifswald University Hospital Practical reason, evidence and regulatory specifications: sometimes contradictory
14:10 – 15:00	Lunchtime snack Block 2 – Perspectives on low-value care
15:00 – 15:20	Franz Knieps – Senior Adviser The regulatory perspective
15:20 – 15:40	Gregor Bornes – Gesundheitsladen e.V. The patient perspective
15:40 – 16:00	Prof. Dr Claudia Spies – Charité Universitätsmedizin Berlin The limits of an economic perspective / Low-value care for the seriously ill
16:00 – 16:20	Dr Matthias Wilken – BPI e.V. The pharmaceutical industry's perspective
16:20 – 16:45	Coffee Break Block 3 – Discussion and outlook
16:45 – 17:45	Closing discussion What are the specific next steps from identifying to reducing low-value care in Germany ?
17:45 – 18:00	Summary and close IQWiG Institute Management and moderation team urban & saal
18:00 – 23:00	Evening event with buffet and drinks