

IQWiG-Autumm-Symposium

23.11. und 24.11.2012

Moderator: Holger Wormer

Programme - 23.11.2012

Cancer: Is everything different?

from 13.30	Meeting in the foyer	16.30 - 17.15	Karl Broich Are there differences in the approval of oncologic drugs compared to non-oncologic ones?
14.00 - 14.30	Introduction
14.30 - 15.15	Wolfgang Eckart „The king of diseases“: How did the particular attention for patients with cancer come about?	17.15 - 17.45	Breake and individual discussions
15.15 - 15.45	Breake and individual discussions	17.45 - 18.30	Claudia Wild HTA perspectives: Should oncologic drugs be assessed differently from other dugs?
15.45 - 16.30	Martin Schuler Medical treatment of cancer patients: Routine or something special?	18.30 - 19.15	Claudia Bausewein Viewed from the end of life: Is the question „cancer“ relevant to affected patients and carers?
		from 19.15	Evening snack and individual discussions

Programme - 24.11.2012

Can less be more?

09.00 - 09.30	Introduction	11.30 - 12.15	Wolfgang Blank One doesn't need everything: Evidence-based medicine in practice
09.30 - 10.15	Jörg Carlsson Is less possible? Status of the discussion in Schweden	12.15 - 13.00	Christiane Woopen Is less allowed? The corridor between defensive medicine and under-provision of health care
10.15 - 11.00	Petra Thürmann Less would actually be more: Drug therapy in elderly people
11.00 - 11.30	Breake and individual discussions	ab 13.00	Lunch snack and individual discussions