

IQWiG Autumn symposium

Diagnosics: Why "accurate" is not enough

Moderator: Holger Wormer

Programme 25./26.11.2022

Friday, 25.11.2022

- | | |
|----------------------|---|
| 14.00 - 14.15 | Jürgen Windeler
Welcoming and introduction |
| 14.15 - 15.00 | Tanja Krones
The value of information |
| 15.00 - 15.45 | Sandra Janatzek
Benefit assessment of diagnostic procedures –
which studies are needed? |
| 15.45 - 16.15 | Coffee break
individual discussions |
| 16.15 - 17.00 | Antonia Zapf
Benefit assessment of diagnostic procedures –
handling of incomplete evidence |
| 17.00 - 17.45 | Indra Spiecker gen. Döhmann
Legal aspects in the use of diagnostic procedures |
| 17.45 - 18.00 | Coffee break
individual discussions |
| 18.00 - 18.45 | Elmar Gräbel
The controversy surrounding early diagnosis of Alzheimer's |
| 18.45 | Get-together
Dinner and individual discussion |

IQWiG Autumn symposium

Programme am 25./26.11.2022

Saturday, 26.11.2022

- 09.00 - 09.15 Holger Wormer
Good and useful diagnostic - impulses for the day
- 09.15 - 10.00 Jörg Meerpohl
Tests in the pandemic
- 10.00 - 10.45 Daniel Truhn
Artificial intelligence or artificial stupidity?
- 10.45 - 11.15 Coffee break
individual discussions
- 11.15 - 12.00 Gerhard Schillinger
Genetic tumour diagnostics and personalized medicine from the system perspective
- 12.00 - 12.45 Jürgen Windeler
The main thing is to be healthy?!
- 12.45 - 13.00 Holger Wormer
Summary and outlook
- 13.00 Get-together
Lunch and individual discussions –
end of event