

Programme

IQWiG Autumn Symposium

27 - 28 November 2009

Programme - 27.11.2009

Medicine - belief and knowledge

13.00 onwards	Meet in foyer	16.30 – 17.00	Wolfgang Becker-Brüser Objective research in the pharmaceutical industry is impossible
13.30 – 13.45	Peter T. Sawicki Welcome	17.15 – 17.45	Break
13.45 – 14.15	Heiner Raspe Medicine - knowledge or assumptions?	17.45 – 18.15	Jürgen Windeler The necessity of scientific proof
14.30 – 15.00	Daniel Strech Value judgements in medical science	18.30 – 19.00	Manfred Lütz Is medicine the new religion?
15.15 – 15.45	Break	19.30 onwards	Music, buffet & networking
15.45 – 16.15	Koen Torfs Objective research in the pharmaceutical industry is possible

Programme - 28.11.2009

Health care system – experiencing and funding it

09.00 – 09.15	Peter T. Sawicki Introduction	11.15 – 11.45	Georg Marckmann Necessity and accuracy of integral benefit measures
09.15 – 09.45	Otfried Höffe Does an affluent society have the right to ration health care?	12.00 – 12.30	Michael Schlander Efficiency measures
10.00 – 10.30	Weyma Lübke Willingness to pay and implicit value-of-life judgements. What do we understand by public health care?	12.45 – 13.15	Herbert Rebscher What reforms are necessary to improve medicine?
10.45 – 11.15	Break	13.30 onwards	Lunch/close

The venue for the IQWiG Autumn Symposium 2009 is the Radisson SAS, Am Messekreisel 3, Cologne.