

IQWiG Autumn Symposium: 27 – 28 November 2015

Are real-world data an asset for benefit assessments?

Moderation: Holger Wormer

Programme on 27 November 2015

from 13.30	Meeting in the foyer	16.30 - 17.15	Rolf Lefering Registry results using the example of medical care for severely injured patients: TraumaRegister DGU
14.00 - 14.30	Jürgen Windeler Welcoming address and introduction	17.15 - 17.45	Break – individual discussions
14.30 - 15.15	Matthias Augustin Do we need real-world data for benefit assessments?	17.45 - 18.30	Thomas Mansky Possibilities and pitfalls when using routine data for benefit assessments
15.15 - 15.45	Break – individual discussions	18.30 - 19.15	Gerd Antes Is the age of causality over?
15.45 - 16.30	Monika Klinkhammer-Schalke The contribution of clinical cancer registries for benefit assessments: requirements and results so far	from 19.15	Evening snack – individual discussions

Programme on 28 November 2015

09.00 - 09.15	Jürgen Windeler Welcoming address and introduction	11.15 - 12.00	Dieter Paar Earlier drug approval – an opportunity for patients?
09.15 - 10.00	Hans-Georg Eichler* Adaptive pathways to patients: The expected contribution of „real world data“	12.00 - 12.45	Bernd Mühlbauer Earlier drug approval – a risk for patients?
10.00 - 10.45	Elisabeth George* How „real world data“ compensate for scarce evidence in HTA	12.45 - 13.00	Jürgen Windeler Summary – outlook
10.45 - 11.15	Break – individual discussions	from 13.00	Lunch snack – individual discussions

* Presentation in English;
all others are in German.